

The 2018 University of Chicago Scavenger Hunt List
Minneapolis Addendum: Twins in the Twin Cities

The University of Chicago Scavenger Hunt Organization Committee

SCAV TEAMS AND THE RULES OF THE HUNT: TWINS EDITION

1. Acquisition of Items. All items on the list can be obtained and performed legally. It may involve smooth talking, or it may involve something else, but it is all possible. The Judges take no responsibility over your getting thrown into the clink, be it local clink, state clink, federal clink, or Colonel Klink. If you end up there, it is your fault.
2. Fair Play. Sabotage is bad. We don't like it and we don't want it in the Hunt. Sabotaging teams or their items can lead to immediate disqualification, and even then we may turn the hounds up in Administration loose on you. Also, you are representing the good Scavenly name out here, so don't soil it.
3. Contact with Judges. While we don't want to complain and say that Judges have it so tough, Scav Hunt is always teetering on the edge of sheer chaos, and if we can avoid it, we should. As a result, please only communicate with the Judges if you are going to do it in a professional manner. Generally, just remember that the more people shout, the less will be understood. That seems like it makes sense, no? If something really does come up, noted Judge and proud mother of a harmonica-playing-baby Claire Gilbert is within arm's reach to avert any impending disasters, and her contact information will be dispersed in the email thread.
4. Props. All props must continue to be mad props.
5. Points. Point totals are final. We Judges give out points for the spirit of the item in its presentation. Note that no items require alcohol, nudity, sex, or drugs. But we will say that Minnesota is known for fantastic beers (and, like, pretty much everything else), so if you end up partaking, please do so legally and moderately.
6. A Good Time. For a good time call (612) 408-4950.
7. Items. Be aware that doing Items nude when it's not explicitly asked for will not get you more points. Nor will involving alcohol in Items that don't clearly call for alcohol. The same goes for nudity and alcohol's redheaded, stepchild cousins, sex and drugs. Please note that few Items explicitly call for nudity, alcohol, or either of the aforementioned redheaded variants. If you do choose to imbibe the Devil's Dastardly Drink, please do so legally and in moderation. Lastly, we don't like to harm large mammals that can make sad eyes at us, so please treat any non-humans involved in your items with extreme care.
8. Transit. Outside of your own four feet (remember, there are two of you) you should be able to transverse all stops using the Metro Transit's fleet of buses (rapid and regular) and light rails. We did it, and you will too! In fact, we're flat-out restricting the use of all other vehicles to emergencies (like almost missing the Megabus back), safety concerns, and transport to/from your living arrangements which may be unconnected to the Metro Transit network.
9. Twins Judgment. Twins Judgment will take place on Sunday morning at 8:30 a.m. in the Cloister Club of Ida Noyes Hall. For items that require photographic evidence, please have the photos on a single device. For other items, please have the physical items. In short, BE ORGANIZED.
10. Rules. Ain't no rule says you don't know the rules of the inn.
11. Housing. It's on you to find a place to crash. We encourage you to use your (and your team's) connections, but under no circumstances will you not stay somewhere overnight. In only the most dire of circumstances should you use the emergency contacts given to you and call Head Judge Ori.
12. Prizes. Prizes are real, live points, which will be added to your team's point total at Twins Judgment, and real, live Bitpoints, which will be added immediately upon receipt of items marked with the ₿ symbol.
13. Decisions. All decisions of the Judges are final. Final.
14. Final. See Decisions.
