

SCAVOLYMPICS PAGE

The judging of this page is done en massé starting at 10:30 AM, Sunday, May the 5th, unless otherwise noted. Competitors will assemble on the section of the Midway in front of Ida Noyes.

1. Target cheese log caber toss. Toss a cheese log caber-style (end over end) to an immobile team mate at least 20' away. If the team mate catches (judge's interpretation) the cheese log points will be awarded for distance. The cheese log must have a surviving section of at least 1' in length upon reception/impact. (10+ pts. for competing, 45 pts. for first place.)
2. Gross-out pizza. Make a pizza 30" in diameter and cut into 24 slices. Points will be awarded for eating other team's pizzas, and for having a pizza that no one has eaten, or is willing to eat. Your team must also provide a pizza committee consisting 3 tasters, and one pizza custodian. (Pizza ingredients may include any non-toxic edible substance that is not designed to induce vomiting. Foodstuffs on the pizza must be unspoiled and cannot require additional manipulation to be safely consumed (e.g. whole fish). External doctoring of the pizza to decrease it's appeal is prohibited. The idea behind this event is to have a gross, but not harmful, or lethal pizza.)
(5 pts./slice + 35 pts.)
3. Ketchup Balloon Toss. Much like a kraut-juice balloon toss, but with ketchup instead of kraut. Points awarded for distance between throwers. (10+ pts. for competing, 35 pts. for first place.)
4. Ambassador Kosh-off (a team member dressed in an encounter suit to say cryptic things when the judges ask them questions.) (30+ pts. for competing, 60 pts. for first place.)
5. Blood. Team members to donate Blood to the United Blood Services Scavenger Hunt Blood Drive on Friday, May 3rd from 10 AM to 7 PM. Remember to bring donor ID. UBS will be set up in the Ida Noyes Cloister Club, and in a Blood Mobile at Hutchinson Commons. Once blood is donated, report to the Scavenger Hunt Judges on site to record your donation, THIS IS YOUR RESPONSIBILITY, IF YOU DO NOT REPORT, WE WILL NOT RECORD YOUR DONATION. (20 pts. per pint, 500 pts. maximum.)
6. Have your team's name put on a banner and flown by airplane in front of Ida Noyes at 2:00 on Judgement Day. (187 pts.)
7. An HTML Web Page, Netscape readable and linked to The Student's Homepage Directory at the University of Chicago College Home Page and titled "<team name>'s Scavenger Hunt Home Page." Our last check will be 10:00 pm Saturday the 4th. Be sure to include links you think we'd enjoy, and pictures of your team and some of your items (2-55 pts., judge's discretion)
8. A homemade 9" cherry pie for a pie eating contest. The pie must be eaten without hands, and while wearing item 69 (20 pts. for competing, 52 pts. for first place)
9. A drag race. All participants must be male and be wearing high heels (stilettos or high-heeled boots, I'm not particular) of at least 4 inches in height, in addition to dresses, wigs, makeup and fake breasts. (20 pts. for competing, 60 pts. for first place.)
10. Cockroach races. Be sure to paint your roach in the team colors, and bring a 20" cardboard tube. (Note: the Scavenger Hunt Judge's team color is roach-color, any other colors are acceptable).
pts. for competing, winning roach gets freedom and 50 pts. for team)
11. Make a paper airplane to be flown for distance, contest during judging. (10 pts. for competing, 30 pts. for first place.)
12. Get Jay Leno to mention your team specifically on the Tonight Show™, wishing it luck, on Thursday or Friday. Hefty bonus points for a guest appearance. (75 pts, 150 bonus pts. for a "live" guest appearance.)
13. A slow bicycle race. Contestants on their bicycles must move along in a straight line, as defined by Scavenger Hunt judges. The last bicyclist to cross the finish line is the winner. Contestants must not put their feet down or use any other methods to remain upright other than balance. Bicycle tires must be "standard" size. Contestants falling down will be disqualified. (15 pts. for finishing, 60 pts. for last place.)
14. A tolerance contest using habanero chile peppers, you may bring one glass of milk for relief after the contest. (15 pts. for competing, 40 pts. for first place)
15. A clean designated area at the end of the Hunt, including debris on the Midway. (100 pts., no one gets any money unless all the areas are clean, we are not kidding!)
