

ScavOlympics

(performed on Saturday, 8 May 2004 on the Quads and Ratner Pool and their environs, unless indicated otherwise)

1. _____ The Dry Games - 12:00 PM

- (a) Pod number 2 scores! Each team is responsible for one Atlasphere ball, one scoring pad, and one carefully scouted gladiator. [50 points for first. 40 points for second. 30 points for third. 100 points just for building the thing]
- (b) Burtonian Dodgeball. At The Conclave of the Captains, we will tell you which Tim Burton characters you will represent. Style > Substance. [50 points for first. 40 points for second. 30 points for third]
- (c) The 2004 Freakshowcase. The tallest person you can find. Seriously. As simple as that. The team that presents us with the tallest person gets the points. Also, throw in the hairiest chest, the biggest ears, the longest tongue, the worst tanline, the webbedest toes, the longest eyelashes, the most nipples, the longest hair, the longest nails, and the most different-colored eyes. Everything must be real, and it goes without saying that we'll give bonus points if this is all on the same person. [θ points]
- (d) Perfumania. A perfume expert from each team will be blindfolded and asked to identify the scents of up to 21 different perfumes and colognes. The teammate who correctly identifies the most scents brings home the points. [40 points for first. 30 points for second. 20 points for third]
- (e) Gus's Games comes to the UofC. Bring some flour-resistant goggles and a one-gallon tub of flour with a single Swedish fish at the bottom. When you hear the whistle, get the fish using only the "blow" technique. [30 points for first. 20 points for second. 10 points for third]
- (f) II Corinthians XII:9 - And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me. On the count of go, bench press as much Marx and Engels as you possibly can. [40 points for first. 30 points for second. 20 points for third]
- (g) "Spy a magical Morn!" Bring wits and a bag of Scrabble pieces. [50 points for first. 40 points for second. 30 points for third]
- (h) The Reverse Engineering challenge. Four teammates must build a Lincoln Log cabin, homey, rustic, yet safe and trendy. Sounds easy enough, right? They'll be cuffed, blindfolded, ear-muffled, and gagged. [40 points for first. 30 points for second. 20 points for third]
- (i) BATTLE ROYALE! On Harper quad. Each team must send one combatant, wearing a white tee-shirt, and armed with a water gun filled with red Kool-Aid. Only hits on the tee-shirt will count as kills. The last combatant standing wins. [60 points for first. 50 points for second. 40 points for third. If, after 15 minutes, any more than one contestant still lives, your slave collars explode, and, worse still, no one gets any points]
- (j) An Eric Draven look-alike contest. The contestants will be Judged on: appearance and costume design, performance of guitar solo, and ability to fly. [40 points for first. 30 points for second. 10 points for third]
- (k) At the sound of the whistle, load your mouth with sunflower seeds. Get the kernels on the inside and save them somewhere in your mouth. After five minutes the person with the most unbroken kernels and no shells in their mouth is the winner. [40 points for first. 30 points for second. 10 points for third]
- (l) A Calvin-Ball Tournament. Rules and points TBD. Bring your own equipment.
- (m) Kent French is in the Guinness Book of World Records for clapping 721 times in 60 seconds. You can do better. [50 points for first. 40 points for second. 30 points for third]

2. _____ ScavOlympics Part II: The Wet Games - 6:30 PM

- (a) Psalms XLII: 7 - Deep calleth upon deep at the noise of thy waterspouts: all thy waves and thy billows are gone over me. The Splashin' of the Christ. Your teams synchronized swimmers have creative free reign with only two stipulations: the performance must be no longer than three minutes, the music must be from Earth, Wind, and Fire, and you must out-synch Anchor Splash. [50 points for first. 40 points for second. 30 points for third. No points if any swimmer is not smiling for the entirety of the show]
- (b) Marco! [40 points for first. 30 points for second. 20 points for third]
- (c) They call them scavvies, scavvies, faster than lightning. Ecco that sentiment as one of your teammates swims through our world full of wonder, flying there-under, under the sea! Have them bring us various objects using only their heads, because you know, once they evolve opposable thumbs, humanity is screwed. Be sure to bring 3 hula hoops and a beach ball to this event if you don't want to be beached. [50 points for first. 40 points for second. 30 points for third. 10 points for bringing us a recording of that New Age crap they play at the Shedd Oceanarium show. -10 points if any teammates lose their Tursiops trunks-atus during the course of the event]

- (d) We've had a pretty rough go at getting in touch with our inner raccoons. Push anthropomorphism one step farther and help us out via a furrries swimsuit contest. [50 points for first. 40 points for second. 30 points for third]
- (e) This event truly sucks. Teams must provide a giant straw which reaches from the ground to Ratner's upper deck. The team who can suck up a litre of water the fastest wins. You provide the bucket. [40 points for first. 30 points for second. 20 points for third]
- (f) Psalms CVII: 23-24 - They that go down to the sea in ships, that do business in great waters: These see the works of the Lord, and his wonders in the deep. If you were in Reiti, Italy on August 3rd, you'd know that the vessels of true champions defy comfort, grace, the very idea of forward momentum and the very concept of buoyancy. Deck your team's vessel out and on Saturday show us who's Tarzan of the new pool. [70 points for first. 60 points for second. 50 points for third]

Beginning Thursday morn all will rejoice as Little Agape descends onto our earthly campus to induce periphesece at will, or at the holy command of the Judges. He is omnipresent, omniscient.
