SCAV TEAMS AND THE RULES OF THE HUNT

1. Acquisition of Items. All items on the list can be obtained and performed legally. It may involve smooth talking, or it may involve something else, but it is all possible. The Judges take no responsibility over your getting thrown into the clink, be it local clink, state clink, federal clink, or colonel clink. If you end up there, it is your fault.
2. Fair Play. Sabotage is bad. We don't like it and we don't want it in the Hunt. Sabotaging teams or their items can lead to immediate disqualification, and then, even, we may turn the hounds up in Admin loose on you, too.
3. Contact with Judges. While we don't want to complain and say that Judges have it so tough, Scav Hunt is always teetering on the edge of sheer chaos, and if we can avoid it, we should. As a result, please only communicate with the Judges if you are going to do it in a professional manner. Generally, there should not be much to tell a Judge, anyway, besides dirty jokes about doctors<sup>1</sup>. Generally, just remember that the more people shout, the less will be understood. That seems like it makes sense, no?
4. Props. All props must still be mad props.
5. Points. Point totals are final. We Judges give out points for the spirit of the item in its presentation. In some places, bonus points are also awarded for going above and beyond the Judges' concept of the Call of Duty. As far as point values, well, we used a dartboard and Tibetan numerological methods in determining how much items were worth, so no complaining that "the pink and white vibrator was worth more than the 10-person tall naked pyramid!"

There is a category of points called Special Points or, if you prefer, Super Special Points. If you put the kind of effort into a 5-point item that makes it worth, obviously, more than just that, the Judge judging the page will appeal to the Head Judge for Special Points. For example, if we say, "Bring us a Kobe Bryant jersey," and you get a jersey at K- Mart, you will only get the 5 points. If, however, Kobe Bryant is wearing that jersey, then the Judge will appeal for an additional, like, 2 points in Special Points to be added for the extra effort. Note, however, that doing items that don't call for nudity nude will not bring on Special Points. Nor does involving alcohol in items that don't explicitly call for alcohol. The same goes for nudity and alcohol's redheaded, stepchild cousins, sex and drugs. Please note that no items explicitly call for nudity, alcohol, or redheaded variants.

6. Preliminary Events. The deadlines for the submission of items and performances are final as stated on the list or as announced by the Judges at the Scav Captains and the Meeting of Tomorrow. It is the Captains' responsibility to make sure that they submit these in a timely manner. Items that do not have discrete time/place as stated on the list are not preliminary and therefore must occur at Judgment. If there is something site or time specific as determined by your Captain, notify the Judges and we will come to you. Example: Let's just say you have a giant sombrero. So large, this sombrero, that you cannot move it at all, let alone into Ida Noyes Hall. We will come to you. Consider this a privilege and use your "Come See Our Items" cards sparingly.
7. Scav Captains and the Meeting of Tomorrow. Team Captains (as many as three, please) have a chance to discuss the list with the Judges at 8:30 AM Thursday in the basement conference room of the Reynolds Club. Things like pointing out typos and bizarrely bad grammar is one thing, repeatedly asking us what's a "Redamak" is another. Furthermore, it's during Scav Captains and the Meeting of Tomorrow that we give out extra details about stuff we were too lazy to straighten out before the lists were handed out. Finally, it is as this time that Judges make sure that you are fielding a healthy Road Trip team.

<sup>1</sup>For example: A surgeon comes to see a patient and says there is both good news and bad news. The patient asks for the bad news first, and the surgeon replies that the operation was botched and the patient had about three days to live. The patient, flabbergasted, asked what the good news could possibly be. The surgeon grins and says, "see that intern? We're fucking three times a week."

8. Road Trip. The Road Trip can be done without getting busted by the cops or breaking any rules. Please get it done that way. The destination point most distant from campus may not exceed 1,000 miles. Use of 15-passenger vans or trucks is prohibited.

Driver requirements:

- (a) Minimum age of 18 (If a rental car is used, the rental car company minimum age requirements apply).
- (b) Must have a valid U.S. driver's license for at least two years—must be in drivers' possession throughout trip.
- (c) Must have more than 2,000 miles driving experience.
- (d) May not have received no moving violations or convictions or court-ordered supervision.
- (e) Must be alcohol- and drug-free, including illegal, prescription, and non-prescription drugs.
- (f) Must have valid automobile insurance.

Road Trip Management:

- (a) No one may operate a vehicle for more than three consecutive hours or six total hours in one day.
- (b) Total driving time may not exceed 16 hours within a 24-hour period.
- (c) No driving permitted between midnight and 6 a.m.
- (d) Another person must be awake in the seat next to the driver at all times. The captain of each team must certify in advance to the Judges that the team understands and agrees to abide by these regulations.

9. Justice Sunday. Last year, there was no Justice Sunday. It was Judgment Day and it only took 46 minutes. Trust us, there's a world of difference. Anyhow, on Sunday let's aim for the 46 minutes again.

Late Saturday night the Judges will email the Captains with a list denoting which items are Road Trip. Prepare all Road Trip items for judging at 10:00 AM on Justice Sunday. Regular items will be judged after the Showcase. The Showcase will be judged at the Showcase, which will be at 11:00 AM.

Furthermore, have a highlighted list of the items you've acquired ready so that when a Judge comes by to judge your page, there won't be any time wasted with "do we have the particle accelerator?" questions. If an item is followed by †, it must be ready for judging as part of the Showcase, prior to regular page judging. Judges will hold up placards (really just sheets of paper with Sharpie™-ed numbers) denoting which pages they are ready to judge. Call over whichever judge corresponds to the page you are ready to present. Here's a tip: organize your items based on which page they are on.

In short, BE ORGANIZED.

10. A Good Time. For a good time call (303) 499-7111.
11. Items. Most items remain the property of the team that secured it except for the items that explicitly call for surrender. Furthermore, no items should use any living, non-human animals—think S.P.C.A. guidelines. Finally, we all know about Google, so, typically, count on .jpgs being worth dick. The Internet is trying to destroy the Scav Hunt. Don't let it. Work with us on this one, please, and we'll all be happier.
12. Prizes. Prizes are money and a trophy, apparently (truth be told, the Judges know nothing about said trophy). If you are not a house team, you may have to provide extra documentation in order to get your fat benjis (ORCSA can hold your hand through this). If this is the case, you must provide such documentation to the Head Judge before the end of the Hunt.
13. Decisions. All decisions of the Judges are final. Final.

Scav Olympics

Hungry, hungry hippos, they're in an eating race!* Bring your shopping cart-based hippo, hippo operator, and 8 balls of a satiating size. 13. _____ The mysterious dictator M. Bison has come to our fair town to organize a tournament for the ultimate thumb war Street Fighter. Each team will be given a champion to support, and they must appear in the quad at the appropriate time, in appropriate dress, for a single elimination thumb-war tournament to the death.
