

The Zeroth Annual 2014 University of Chicago Scavenger Hunt List

The University of Chicago Scavenger Hunt Organization Committee

1 January 2014(0)

SCAV TEAMS AND THE RULES OF THE HUNT

1. The Year. 2014(0), in the great Scav tradition of 2014(1) and 2014(2). Unsurprisingly, it is a leap year.
2. The Scavvenyear. We decided four days weren't enough. The gracious Judges have packed an entire 366-day year between List Release (New Year's Day, starting 00:00 CT on Thursday) to Results-ish (New Year's Eve, ending 19:30 CT on Sunday). From this point onward, normie-time rules don't apply. Good luck, folks!
3. Acquisition of Items. All Items on the List can be obtained and performed legally. It may involve smooth talking, or it may involve something else, but it is all possible. The Judges take no responsibility for your getting thrown into the clink—be it local clink, state clink, federal clink, or Colonel Klink. If you end up there, it is your fault.
4. Covid. Listen, the Administration may say that we can't require you to do certain things, but here at Scav we like to do our own thing. Masks will be provided at every indoor event. Judges and Scavvies have a right to their personal space. Please self—monitor and be responsible for yourself—the Judges are doing our best to keep you all safe, but we can't do that without everyone being mindful and conscientious.
5. Fair Play. Sabotage is bad. We don't like it, and we don't want it in the Hunt. Sabotaging teams or their Items can lead to immediate disqualification, and we may even loose the hounds of the Administration on you.
6. Contact with Judges. While we don't want to complain and say that Judges have it so tough, Scav Hunt is always teetering on the edge of sheer chaos, and, if we can avoid it, we should. Thus, please only communicate with the Judges if you are going to do it in a professional manner. Generally, just remember that the more people shout, the less will be understood. That seems like it makes sense, no?
7. Props. All props must, always and forever, be mad props.
8. Points. Point totals are final. We ask you to do awesome things and expect awesome things to be done. If you do said awesome things, the Judge will accord to you Full Points, the highest number of points possible for any Item. In rare cases—for example, if we ask for a car and you give us the Batmobile with both George Clooney and Adam West inside—we will consider giving you one special point. Maybe two. As far as point values, well, we use a dartboard, numberwang, and Tibetan numerological methods to determine how much Items are worth, so no complaining that “the lazy eye patch was worth more than the moonbounce made of guns!”
9. Items. Be aware that doing Items nude when it's not explicitly asked for will not get you more points. Nor will involving alcohol in Items that don't clearly call for alcohol. The same goes for alcohol's redheaded, stepchild cousins, sex and drugs. Please note that few Items explicitly call for nudity, alcohol, or either of the aforementioned redheaded variants. Lastly, we don't like to harm large mammals that can make sad eyes at us, so please treat any non-humans involved in your Items with extreme care.
10. A Good Time. For a good time call (202) 762-1401. It's not the right time, but it is a good one.
11. Preliminary Events. The deadlines for the submission of Items and performances are final as stated on the List or as announced by the Judges at 3:10 to Punxsutawney, which happens on Groundhog Day (sometimes erroneously described as 8:00 AM) in Hutch Commons. It is the Captains' responsibility to make sure that they submit these in a timely manner. Items that do not have a discrete date/place/email stated on the List are not preliminary and therefore must occur at Judgment. Upon request, we may, at our discretion, come to see an Item at a time/place other than Judgment. Consider this a privilege, and use your “Come See Our Items” cards sparingly.

12. Judgment Day. As in the Bible, Judgment Day should take, like, three days. Regular Items will be judged after the Showcase. The Showcase will be judged at Showcase, which will be on November 24th.
In addition, please have a highlighted list of the Items you've acquired ready so that when a Judge comes by to judge your page, there won't be any time wasted with "do we have the particle accelerator?" questions. If an Item is followed by †, it must be ready for judging as part of the Showcase, prior to regular page judging. Judges will hold up placards (really just sheets of paper with Sharpie-ed numbers) denoting which pages they are ready to judge. Call over whichever Judge corresponds to the page you are ready to present. Here's a tip: sort your Items based on which page they are on. In short, BE ORGANIZED.
13. Rules. Ain't no rule says a train roller coaster can't be a Judge.
14. Prizes. The prizes are simple: we bought some random shit we liked on eBay et al. Offer void where prohibited. Check local laws.
15. Decisions. All decisions of the Judges are final. Final.
16. Final. See Decisions.

Scav Olympics

There's 104 days of summer vacation, and school comes along just to end it. So the annual problem for our Scavvies is finding a good way to spend it. To make the most of this summer, join us on August 16th at Eckhart Quad. For each competition, 30 points will be awarded for 1st place; 20 points for 2nd place; 10 points for 3rd place; 2 points for > 3rd place.

1. _____ Agent P or Agent Pee? We've decided to take a page out of the Booth School of Business's book for this next Olympic event—a pissing contest! Send two of your most ego-driven bloodsucking gentrifying fuckheads to liquidate their assets. We'll provide the pee.
2. _____ Boba shooting—no evil gelatin monster allowed here.
3. _____ Ever been coming home with groceries, then your deranged teenager pulls you to the backyard? No? Well, ever been at the grocery store bagging your groceries, then run out to catch the bus? This is pretty much like that.
4. _____ What's the farthest you and a teammate can flip a pancake? Bring said cake and two pans. You choose the distance and have one shot, and only successful pan-to-pan transfers count, so be strategic. No Paul Bunyan's Pancake Haus allowed (where the food is good, but not too good, eh?)
5. _____ For too long Air Bud has had all of the fun, but the turn tables at Olympics this year! Ain't no rule that says a Scavvie on all fours can't participate in a dog show! Let's just hope you do better than Doofenshmirtz and Perry...
6. _____ Remember the Ballad of Bad Beard? Well, it's time to put your folk song skills to the test. A big-leagues "Jenny Jenkins"-off. You might want to think of a few challenging colors in advance; a pre-bought foldy-roldy is optional.
7. _____ Like Grandpa Clyde taught us: We're all going on a lion hunt! But we're not scared! 'Cause we are CAMPERS! And we know two words: left, right, left, right, left, right, left!

Items

1. _____ A copy of the 2014(0) University of Chicago Scavenger Hunt List. [1 point]
2. _____ Stepping out of your time machine on May 11, 2014(0), you rush into the nearest building—Rosenwald—dressed in your futuristic attire. You ask the first person you see the question burning on your mind: What year is it? Upon hearing the answer, you disappointedly run out, get back into your time machine, and recalibrate. [You are from the year 4.253 points]
3. _____ Do you hear the people sing, singing the song of angry men? Please construct a contraption that I can wear that causes a drum to be struck at the same rate as my heartbeat. [32 points]
4. _____ It's summer! The season of Strawberry Socials! But why stop at a Strawberry Social? We want a full-bloomed Fruit Festival! The seed of your preparation should be one unique fruit that you'll announce at 3:10 to Punxsutawney. Your celebration will be fleshed out by a cake for the cakewalk, a pageantry participant decked out in thematic dress, a photo stand-in, and a homemade carnival game with fruity prizes. Meet us at the center quad on June 13th and we'll have an ovary good time! [The fruits of your labors will be awarded with ω points]
5. _____ TBA. [5.0.6 points]
6. _____ You're not here to start no trouble, you're just here to do the ScavO Shuffle! [7 points for before ScavO, 5 points for after ScavO]
7. _____ Lisa and Stefan's date at the Vienna fair may have ended blissfully, but their story certainly did not. It's time to give this unknown woman the train ride she deserves. Using the same bike mechanism, present the deluxe crankie locomotive experience to a train car of Judges, with at least three different crankie layers moving at different speeds. Please note that Scav trains are not limited by space or time, so show us the countryside of your choice. [200 points] †
8. _____ Why, thank you for those heartfelt cards celebrating Penguin Awareness Day (January 20th), International Plastic Bag Free Day (July 3rd), Vanilla Cupcake Day (November 10th), or, frankly, any three mostly-phony holidays, presented to a Judge on that holiday. [2 points each]
9. _____ You mean to tell me that all we have to do to complete this Item is for everyone on our team to do their best evil laugh at Judgment? Mwhahahahahahahaha. [0.9 points]
10. _____ What unusually large object fell into disuse at the U_fC around 1939 and now is used at UT Austin? [3 points]
11. _____ For those of you who keep too many tabs open (you know who you are): A Chrome or Firefox extension that both every-so-often and on demand closes a tab randomly. [Either F1ref0x or Chr10me points, take your pick]
12. _____ Once more, it's time for Skills Hunt! Send a fast-learning Scavvie to Eckhart Quad on February 20th where they will be told the skill they are to learn and present at Judgment. No Scavvie substitutions will be allowed, so choose wisely. [17 points]
13. _____ A Congreve clock that displays the time. Your completion may be largely electronic, but it must fundamentally be controlled by a ball repeatedly rolling down a reversible plane. [70 o'clock points]
14. _____ Are you and a partner qualified to be elite hackers for NCIS? Show up to Bartlett Trophy Lounge on May 28th with a laptop to find out. No technical skills are necessary (or even helpful). [3 points for participation, 7/5/3 bonus points for 1st/2nd/3rd]
15. _____ A Judith Leiber-style mini-audière, for when you want to be the chicest shopper at 6621 South Cottage Grove. It should snugly hold the quarter you need to obtain a shopping cart and look like a product sold there. As this is an Aldi Item rather than a Whole Foods Item, you may, should you so choose, replace the Swarovskis with sequins. [12 points]
16. _____ Where in a retail establishment in Hyde Park can you find a mural of Harold Washington? [2 points]

- 17._____ The dead speak! In this other nearby depiction of the late mayor. Where can you find this more, er, unsettling version? [2 EYES points]
- 18._____ It's not the livery, it's DiGiornio! Wait a second, it's both. Make a fully-edible livery collar out of deconstructed pizza. [11 points]
- 19._____ An animatronic :partyparrot:. [34 points]
- 20._____ This is the second time the bus broke down! That ain't my fault. Yo, we're never gonna make the next show! I'm trying to get ahold of management. *Ain't my fault! BLOOD DRIVE'S BACK, ALRIGHT! [δ points for sending a picture of yourself donating to scavblooddrive@gmail.com]
- 21._____ Hunt for an animal doctor in the Palmetto State and get them to show you proof of membership in their locale's professional fraternal organization—you know which one. [Palm80 points]
- 22._____ You've got your lipstick on, here you come, da da dum. In particular, you are coming towards that blank canvas, because this Item is to create a painting of a punnet of strawberries using solely applied kisses. Please be sure to create a time-lapse video of your completion of this Item. [K11ss points]
- 23._____ What is this, a pillory for a ginger root? [6in6er points (by this, we mean 6.6 points)]
- 24._____ $\rightarrow X \downarrow \leftarrow \downarrow X \uparrow X \rightarrow \rightarrow X \leftarrow \leftarrow X \downarrow \rightarrow \downarrow X \uparrow \uparrow \rightarrow X \uparrow X \leftarrow \downarrow \downarrow \downarrow X \uparrow \uparrow \uparrow X \downarrow \downarrow \downarrow X \uparrow \uparrow \uparrow X X \downarrow \rightarrow X \uparrow \leftarrow X \rightarrow \downarrow X \leftarrow \uparrow X \downarrow \downarrow \downarrow X \uparrow \leftarrow X \uparrow \rightarrow X \uparrow \rightarrow X \leftarrow X \downarrow \downarrow \leftarrow X \uparrow \rightarrow \uparrow \rightarrow X$ [9 points]
- 25._____ Every Mother's Day Weekend, the University of Chicago Scavenger Hunt Organizing Committee hosts a four-day scavenger hunt (called "Scav" by those in the know), and this May is no different. Have up to four teammates show up just before May 10th begins to the steps of Ida Noyes on Woodlawn where they'll get to experience this classic UoC tradition. [π points]
- 26._____ You know how dekotora inspired dekochari? Take a cue from Pakistan's famous art trucks. [54.17 points]
- 27._____ On March 13th, show up to Hyde Park's temporarily spookiest place and regale the Judge with your quick ghost story. Should our guest appear, no doubt he'd have a better one. [13 points because 13 is the spoOoOoOoOoOoky number]

- 29._____ Your team, government approved. Get a .gov website to post an endorsement for your team. [Up to 17.76 points]
- 30._____ This is a Maroon Line train to Harper. A Scavvie can dream, at least. Doors closing. But then, we asked: why let our dreams be memes? Ryerson/Kent is next. Your team's 1600-series rolling stock should be built exactly to half the height and width specifications of a 3200-series L car (we will accept cars of variable lengths), and should be able to open and close its doors, display its destination, and broadcast live and recorded announcements about the route. In the direction of travel, doors open on the right at Ryerson/Kent. In the name of "fun," we also demand that every train be a CTA Holiday Train. This is Ryerson/Kent. In the spirit of your holiday of choice, your team's decor must be festive enough to deter the faint of heart from entering. This is a Maroon Line train to Harper. Please arrange cars in accordance with the Gregorian calendar. [225 points] †

On March 1st, June 5th, and September 9th, meet the Judges in the Bartlett Trophy Lounge, and put your rote memory to the test! [Up to 5 points per Wordle instance]
- 35._____ We non-Catholic Judges were disappointed to learn that "beatification" does not mean recounting the life story of a Blessed over a sick trap beat... [7 deadly spoints]
- 36._____ We non-Catholic Judges were disappointed to learn that "canonization" does not mean shooting a facsimile of a Saint out of large artillery... [16 spoints]
- 37._____ Fuck those cans of Coors™ that change color when your beer is cold—who the hell wants a cold beer?? We British Judges disagree. A Guinness™ glass that emits a shrill scream when your beer is warm. [18 and older pooints]
- 38._____ Don't you hate it when you get hit on the head with a "metal" bar so hard it bends into an exact outline of your head and shoulders? Sucks that a bunch of birds and/or stars start swirling around after it happens, also. [23.5 points + 10 bonus points if you also run through a wall that creates an exact outline of your body]
- 39._____ An official statement from The University of Chicago stating unequivocally that "The University of Chicago is full of assholes." [Points tiered based on the level of member that you get the letter from, max 34.5 points]
- 40._____ A small sekretiki of this Hunt's paraphernalia, to be surreptitiously revealed at Judgment. [9 points]

Points given based on quality of quilt construction, aesthetic enjoyment, and success of autostereogram. [175 points] †
- 42._____ The New England Journal of Medicine has finally agreed to Dr. Leo Spaceman's requests! Of course, though, as it is in the scientific publishing world, we hear that several other journals are plagiarizing this idea from the NEJM. Please provide us with a six-panel sample from one of the following journals: Journal of Aquaculture and Fisheries Management, Bulletin of Volcanology, the American Institute for Conservation, The Accounting Review, Journal of Transport and Land Use. - 43._____ Silent Bar Night, Holy Bar Night, a gothic boxwood miniature. [33.5 points]
- 44._____ Have you ever woken up extra early before school or work to sit through an entire Ash Wednesday Mass only to walk away with a smudged blob on your forehead instead of a proper cross? You'd think the same religion that produces beautiful stained glass and the Sistine Chapel could be a bit more artistic. Come to Eckhart quad this Ash Wednesday with an artist and a model and demonstrate your artistic abilities. The medium? Palm ash we'll provide to you. The canvas? Your Scavvie's forehead. The image? Your artistic vision. [10 points]

- 77._____ Food is the world's great equalizer, the lingua franca, the common thread, etc., and at this year's Scavvenfeast, it couldn't be any more obvious. First, we want to recognize the universality that is the humble noodle—for your appetizer, create a dish of homemade noodles using the form and composition of one cuisine and the style of preparation of another. Next, we must honor the common joy of a perfectly balanced sandwich, with each ingredient working together in harmony to create the ultimate bite. Taking inspiration from Ireland's rollóg bhriceasta, an attempt to stuff a full breakfast into a handheld roll, prepare an original rollóg dinnéar from the country of your choosing, such that each “sandwich” ingredient represents a component of a traditional dinner. Finally, even though we might hoist different flags, there's nothing more ubiquitous than a rustic dessert made from homegrown ingredients. As a homage to Italian flag cookies and American flag cakes, create a dessert that not only showcases a region's local ingredients but uses them to create a colorful yet delicious facsimile of the flag that represents it. Bring an optional passport and non-optional appetite to Ida Noyes on September 23rd. [μ points]

- 83._____ A rubber chicken rubber. [6.9 points]
- 84._____ When we were young, we thought rain came from giant blimps that held big containers of water. They would release that water through two gratings that would cut back and forth to make separate droplets. Now that we're older and wiser, we realize that all that water would make a blimp too heavy to fly, and instead the blimp might need to be held up by something to hold all that water. We also realize that blimps aren't that big: maybe only the size of one's yard or shower. But we're pretty sure the rest is still feasible! [42.5 points]
- 85._____ Diner rules are in effect. Every Item on this page must be accompanied by a pickle spear, or else it will receive NO POINTS.

- 90._____ A colossal cootie-catcher containing copious contingencies corresponding with the Cabal's conferment, controlled by a crowd of Scav competitors. [Pick 4 different integers, with sum 20, in the range from -20 to 40, and add one value to each fortune's detailed narrative.]

- 100._____ Cause on my head, there's a Greyhound station/where I send my thoughts to far-off destinations/also on four teammates' heads, connected by roadways/and we even brought our own model bus! [I do believe it's true/that there are 15 points in both of our shoes]
- 101._____ The rubber hand illusion has gotten a little...limp. Convince us for the splittest of seconds that our hand exploded, disintegrated, metamorphosized, or experienced any other impressive feat. [17 points]
