

The 2015 University of Chicago Scavenger Hunt List

The University of Chicago Scavenger Hunt Organization Committee

10 May 2015

SCAV TEAMS AND THE RULES OF THE HUNT

1. Acquisition of Items. All items on the List can be obtained and performed legally. It may involve smooth talking, or it may involve something else, but it is all possible. The Judges take no responsibility for your getting thrown into the clink—be it local clink, state clink, federal clink, or Colonel Klink. If you end up there, it is your fault.
2. Fair Play. Sabotage is bad. We don't like it, and we don't want it in the Hunt. Sabotaging teams or their items can lead to immediate disqualification, and we may even loose the hounds of the Administration on you.
3. Contact with Judges. While we don't want to complain and say that Judges have it so tough, Scav Hunt is always teetering on the edge of sheer chaos, and if we can avoid it, we should. Thus, please only communicate with the Judges if you are going to do it in a professional manner. Generally, just remember that the more people shout, the less will be understood. That seems like it makes sense, no?
4. Props. All props must, always and forever, be mad props.
5. Points. Point totals are final. We ask you to do awesome things and expect awesome things to be done. If you do said awesome things, the Judge will accord to you Full Points, the highest number of points possible for any item. In rare cases—for example, if we ask for a car, and you give us the Batmobile with both George Clooney and Adam West inside—we will consider giving you one special point. Maybe two. As far as point values, well, we use a dartboard, numberwang, and Tibetan numerological methods to determine how much items are worth, so no complaining that “the lazy eye patch was worth more than the moonbounce made of guns!”
6. Items. Be aware that doing items nude when it's not explicitly asked for will not get you more points. Nor will involving alcohol in items that don't clearly call for alcohol. The same goes for nudity and alcohol's redheaded stepchild cousins sex and drugs. Please note that few items explicitly call for nudity, alcohol, or either of the aforementioned redheaded variants. Lastly, we don't like to harm large mammals that can make sad eyes at us, so please treat any non-humans involved in your items with extreme care.
7. A Good Time. For a good time, call (202) 762-1401.
8. Preliminary Events. The deadlines for the submission of items and performances are final as stated on the List or as announced by the Judges at Morgunverður. It is the Captains' responsibility to make sure that they submit these in a timely manner. Items that do not have discrete time/place stated on the List are not preliminary and therefore must occur at Judgment. Upon request, we may, at our discretion, come to see an item at a time/place other than Judgment. Consider this a privilege, and use your “Come See Our Items” cards sparingly.
9. Early Submission. Items marked with ☉ are Early Submission. These items may, but do not have to, be submitted via email prior to Judgment. To do this, send a missive with the appropriate links/attachments to ScavPage[PageNumber]@gmail.com (Ex. ScavPageOne@gmail.com) with the subject: “[Your Team Name]: [Item Number]”, where [Page Number], [Your Team Name], and [Item Number] are the page number, your team name, and item number respectively (duh). Like the dining halls, Early Submission closes at 2:30 p.m. Saturday. We'll send a confirmation when we receive your item and another when we judge it. If you have not gotten the latter by 8 a.m. Sunday, mutter something unkind about us and prepare to present the item at Judgment.
10. Af góðu upphafi vonast góður endir. After the Clinton Administration clears their congressional hearing and is sent on their way, bring your Björks to Morgunverður in Hutchinson Almenningar. The Judges will provide a traditional Icelandic máltíð of birch shots and unvaccinated horses, by which we mean coffee and donuts. Come with questions: we'll do our best to elucidate the mysterious ancient Íslendingasögur that is the 2015 Listi, plus hand out whatever additional materials (such as necropants and cod) our atriði might require.
11. Road Trip. The Road Trip can be done without getting busted by the cops or breaking any rules. Please get it done that way. The destination point most distant from campus will not exceed 1,000 miles. Use of 15-passenger vans or trucks is prohibited.

Driver requirements:

- a. Minimum age of 18 (If a rental car is used, the rental car company minimum age requirements apply).
- b. Must have held a valid US driver's license for at least two years, which must be in driver's possession throughout trip.
- c. Must possess valid passports, should the mischiefs of foreign intrigue beckon.
- d. Must have more than 2,000 miles driving experience.
- e. May not have received moving violations or convictions or court-ordered supervision.
- f. Must be alcohol- and drug-free (it's the way to be), including illegal, prescription, and non-prescription drugs that could impair driving function or are used for any reason other than their FDA-approved intent.
- g. Must have valid automobile insurance.

Road Trip Management:

- a. No one may operate a vehicle for more than three consecutive hours or six total hours in one day.
- b. Total driving time may not exceed 16 hours within a 24-hour period.
- c. No driving permitted between midnight and 6 a.m.
- d. Another person must be awake in the seat next to the driver at all times.

Road Trip Rules:

- a. Upon spotting a sign casting opprobrium upon various measures of birth control or the deliberate termination of a pregnancy, one must punch another occupant of the car and proclaim, "Foetus Boetus!"
- b. Upon spotting an adult entertainment venue or advertisement, or an advertisement for Fantastic Caverns, one must punch another occupant of the car and proclaim, "Moetus Boetus!"
- c. Upon spotting a sign lauding the life and acts of the Lawd Jesus Christ, one must punch another occupant of the car and proclaim, "Jeebus Boetus!"
- d. Punches not in accordance with the above rules may be met with one equal or harder punch in retribution.

A Captain of each team must certify in advance to the Judges that the team understands and agrees to abide by these regulations.

12. Judgment Day. As in the Bible, Judgment Day should take, like, 45 minutes. Late Saturday night, the Judges will email the Captains with a list denoting which items are Road Trip. Prepare all Road Trip items for judging at 9:00 a.m. on Judgment Day. Regular items will be judged after the Showcase. The Showcase will be judged at Showcase, which will be at 10:00 a.m.

In addition, please have a highlighted list of the items you've acquired ready so that when a Judge comes by to judge your page, there won't be any time wasted with "do we have the particle accelerator?" questions. If an item is followed by †, it must be ready for judging as part of the Showcase, prior to regular page judging. Judges will hold up placards (really just sheets of paper with Sharpie™-ed numbers) denoting which pages they are ready to judge. Call over whichever Judge corresponds to the page you are ready to present. Here's a tip: Sort your items based on which page they are on. In short, BE ORGANIZED.

13. Rules. Ain't no rule says a bass can't read a text message.
14. Prizes. The prizes are simple, because there are no prizes. Depending on how much of the Scav budget the Judge Cabal hasn't spent on Choles for our holes, you may be eligible for an ice cream bacchanal or other in-kind prize. Offer void where prohibited. Check local laws.
15. Decisions. All decisions of the Judges are final. Final.
16. Final. See Decisions.

Scav Olympics

To be held at 12:00 p.m. on Saturday, 9 May 2015, on or about the Eckhart Quad. For each competition, 20 points will be awarded for 1st place; 15 points for 2nd place; 10 points for 3rd place; 5 points for $(3 < x \leq \infty)$ th place.

1. _____ Giraffe hobby: stealing doughnuts with their unreasonably long tongues. Balance a doughnut on a slap bracelet tongue and successfully relay it to your giraffe friend's slap bracelet tongue across the Quad. Giraffes do not have hands. Do not use your hands to pass the doughnut. If the doughnut is dropped or the slap bracelet snapped, restart! Two (2) giraffe friends to a team.
2. _____ Sometimes people tie the knot—wink wink—but for this event, you'll be doing just the opposite.
3. _____ Send your real world Candy Crush savant for a mystery saga of crushed candies.
4. _____ Wheelie warriors! Using only one (1) wheel of your bicycle, get the farthest distance away the fastest. If the second wheel falls, you stop, and you stop for good. BYOBike helmet and bike.
5. _____ Giraffe fighting: a whole new way of necking. BYOBike helmet.
6. _____ Hey you know that game “cornhole”? This is kind of like that, except your mouth is the hole where the corn goes. Each team will be provided a handful of Fritos[®] corn chips. One team member will lie on the ground with their mouth open, while their teammates throw corn chips from a reasonable distance toward their open faces. Just like cornhole, guys. Just like cornhole.
7. _____ Time for the most stress-ful event of the Hunt: the Five Meter Dash! Come prepared to recognize and produce poetry in iambic, trochaic, anapestic, amphibrachic, and dactylic verse.
8. _____ Pop seven (7) Tide pods, pop them the fastest, and pop them WITH. YOUR. ASS. Asses need not be entirely organic. In fact, we suggest some sort of well-engineered, padded butt armor that can emulate buns of steel but features nothing pointier than would typically protrude from a pair of au naturel buttocks. BYOBike Helmet.
9. _____ Emoji charades. Send two Scavvies and BYOiPhone.

Scavvenwedding

This wedding, like any sacred act, has multiple phases. Items 1, 4, 5, 7, and 10 should be brought to the Rockefeller East Entrance at 7:25 p.m. on Friday so that they may be judged by the Scavvencouple. Item 6 will occur promptly following the ceremony's conclusion, followed by Item 2. The remainder will take place during the ceremony, the details of which will be printed in the program. Any further questions will be answered at Morgunverður.

1. _____ Muldoon claimed that raptors could move “50, 60 miles per hour” over open ground, but that’s a tad generous from what we know of theropod biomechanics. You know how they could go that fast, though? If they were being dragged behind a moving car! Construct a small Velociraptor made of tin cans, to pursue the “Just Married”-mobile. [4 points]
2. _____ A team member dressed as a viking bearing an (electric) torch to lead the couple to their chariot after the judging of the cakes, to ensure that this brudlaup is blessed in the eye of Odin. [6 points]
3. _____ Execute the plan! As they exit the chapel, shower the Scavvenbride and Scavvengroom with the Hunt’s favorite diced vegetable (hold the mayo... that tux is rented!) [3 points]
4. _____ Cufflinks in the shape of a pig-bride and pig-groom. [8 points. 5 bonus points if chosen to be worn by the Scavvengroom during the ceremony.]
5. _____ On the day of his wedding, give the Scavvengroom the advice he needs most. What should he keep in mind if he ever travels through time? [1 point]
6. _____ Why do we eat cake? Some say we eat because we are hungry. We say we eat cake because we want to truly feel. We’ve all eaten cakes that have made us feel “yum,” but have you ever eaten a cake that makes you feel “congratulations on your matrimony during this, the world’s largest annual scavenger hunt!” Make us a cake that makes us feel as if we have truly sent off the Scavvencouple to a lifetime of love happiness. Cake themes will be chosen at Morgunverður and must be brought to the Rockefeller South Lawn at 8:30 p.m. [50 points]
7. _____ Brooch bouquets may be glitzy af, but what about something with a little more personal flair? For the Hyde Park Scavvenbride, make a brooch bouquet that intersperses some sparkly-ass gems with buttons and pins from the University and other local establishments. [14 points]
8. _____ And now, a reading from the Gospel of Nerd. In the style of children acting out the nativity story of Luke 2:1-20, each team will prepare a moving, two-minute-tops reading from a passage dealing with love in one of the great sci-fi or fantasy novels or films. Concurrent with the reading, appropriately costumed Scavvies from your team give a dramatic rendering of the action upon the altar. [15 points]
9. _____ Please note that the Scavvenwedding will commence in the style of 1984’s The Muppets Take Manhattan. Send your team’s choral penguin to Rockefeller Chapel at 5:00 p.m. on Friday for rehearsal, having memorized the goeey Muppets dreamhymn: “He’ll Make Me Happy.” [6 points]
10. _____ Something old, something new, something borrowed, something blue...how did the rest of that go? Something about sixpence in a shoe? [6 pence points]

Keep the whole room at Judgment up to date on the score of the Sox or Cubs using your own Compton Electric Base Ball Game Impersonator, Nokes Electrascore, Play-o-Graph, Jackson Manikin Baseball Indicator, or similar product of your own construction. 15. _____ Now this we can do: drink Orange Crush® on the Orange Line, Mello Yello® on the Yellow Line, Dr. Brown's® on the Brown Line, Grape Soda on the Purple Line, and Pepto Bismol® on the Pink Line. Be sure to share with any random passengers in your car! [1.5 points each]

At any significant road side confluence of cows, the Administration, while the Surrey is moving, will roll down their windows, and yell "HEY COW!"
