The University of Chicago Scavenger Hunt Organization Committee

8 May 2025

THE RULES OF THE HUNT

1. Items. All Items on the List can and should be obtained and performed legally. The Judges take no responsibility for participants whose misadventures land them in hot water, deep shit, and/or the doghouse. Be aware that doing Items nude when it's not explicitly asked for will not get you more points, nor will involving alcohol in Items that don't clearly call for alcohol. The same goes for their redheaded step-cousins, sex and drugs. Lastly, we don't like to harm creatures that can make sad eyes at us, so please treat any non-humans involved in your Items with extreme care.
2. Fair Play. Sabotage is bad. We don't like it, and we don't want it in the Hunt. Sabotaging teams or their Items can lead to immediate disqualification, and we may even let loose the hounds of the Administration on you. We expect all participants to abide by the Code of Conduct, which can be found on our website.
3. Team Captains. All Captains are asked to report to Hutchinson Commons at 8:00 a.m. on Thursday for a meeting, henceforth referred to as "Craft Services."
4. Props. All props must, always and forever, be mad props.
5. Judgment Day. Judgment Day will take place on Sunday, starting with Showcase Items at 9:00 a.m. Regular Items—i.e. the majority of Items on the List—will be judged after Showcase. As in the Bible, Judgment Day should take, like, 45 minutes. Scav is Hell, however, so be prepared to wait. Please have a highlighted list of the Items you've acquired ready so that when a Judge comes by to judge your page, there won't be any time wasted with "do we have the particle accelerator?" questions. Judges will hold up placards (really just clipboards with Sharpied numbers) denoting which pages they are ready to judge. Call over whichever Judge corresponds to the page you are ready to present. Upon request, we may, at our discretion, come to see an Item at a time/place other than Judgment. Consider this a privilege, and use your "Come See Our Items" cards sparingly.
6. Events. In addition to Judgment Day, a variety of events are scheduled to take place over the period of the Hunt. Times and locations may be stated on the list or provided to Captains at Craft Services.
7. A Good Time. For a good time, call (202) 762-1401.
8. Contact With Judges. Judges may respond to inquiries as needed, but don't expect us to just hand out all the answers. Please only communicate with the Judges if you are going to do so in a civil manner. Generally, just remember that the more people shout, the less will be understood. That seems like it makes sense, no?
9. Points. Point totals are final. We ask you to do awesome things and expect awesome things to be done. If you do said awesome things, the Judge will accord to you Full Points, the highest number of points possible for any Item. In rare cases—for example, if we ask for a car and you give us the Batmobile with both George Clooney and Adam West inside—we will consider giving you one special point. Maybe two. As far as point values, well, we use a dartboard, numberwang, and Tibetan numerology to determine how much Items are worth, so no complaining that "the lazy eye patch was worth more than the moonbounce made of guns!"
10. AI. Don't use it.
11. Digital Items. If an Item is followed by , it must be uploaded to our Google Drive Folder by 9:00 p.m. on Saturday. Only submissions following the file naming convention of "PAGE #. ITEM #. TEAM NAME." will be accepted.
12. Rules. Ain't no rule says nosrednA .J leahciM can't be a Judge.
13. Prizes. Depending on how much of the Scav budget the Judge Cabal hasn't spent on Choles for our holes, you may be eligible for a free-food bacchanal or other in-kind prize. Offer void where prohibited. Check local laws.
14. Decisions. All decisions of the Judges are final.
15. Final. See Decisions.

Scav Olympics

Scav Olympics will be held at 10:00 a.m. on Saturday May 10th, on the Midway south of Wieboldt Hall. For each competition, 30 points will be awarded for 1st place; 20 points for 2nd place; 10 points for 3rd place; 2 points for > 3rd place.

- 1._____ The most French sport, somehow left out of the Paris Olympics. BYOBaguette.
- 2._____ There's nothing like coming home and kicking off your shoes... as far as fucking possible.
- 3._____ Sigalit Landau, 2025: Three Scavvies Hula.
- 4._____ A game of ball.
- 5._____ It's like Disco Foot but it's actually not it's Ballet Croquet on the Midway... how very.
- 6._____ Each year in May, one of our region's most important natural wonders takes place as millions of coho and Chinook salmon return to the waters of Lake Michigan to spawn. Bring your team's speediest salmon and most ferocious bear, and get ready to SALMON RUN!! 🐻🐟
- 7._____ Wait, doesn't your class start in three minutes?

Showcase Items

Showcase Items will be judged at Showcase, which will be at 9:00 a.m. on Sunday in the Ida Noyes courtyard. Choose no more than two of the following Items to present at Showcase. Each Showcase Item is worth up to 180 points.

- 1._____ Create a mischievous photo booth where each of the four frames activates an automated sensory surprise such as a puff of wind, a colorful light pattern, or a temperature shift. Whether your theme explores a group of four things or outlines a process in four stages, ensure the resulting photo strip will serve as a cherished memento of Scav Hunt 2025.
- 2._____ An arcade arcade game. No, not a regular arcade game. A novel arcade game with, like, arches and shit. In the game, not just the full-sized cabinet. Don't you understand?
- 3._____ If climate change continues to worsen, coastal cities like Chicago are at risk of being permanently submerged. But why can't the imminent threat of climate-related disaster be fun and educational? Build us a museum-worthy water play table depicting a hypothetical future Chicago impacted by rising water levels. The display should be interactive, allowing viewers to manipulate the flow of water with at least two independent controls. It should also be informative, with explanatory labels detailing the real-world hydrological principles at play in your model.
- 4._____ You know that one "Christmas Bells" commercial, the one with the band of ringing Hershey's Kisses performing that one Christmas carol? It's always bothered us, and, after all these years, we've finally figured out why—they are obviously lip syncing. And they only ever perform that one song! In our opinion, their whole act is getting a little old. Construct a novel automated contraption that flicks a chorus of candies of your choice to emulate a pre-existing festive song of your choice. The music should be created exclusively from the live noise made when a piece of candy in the chorale is perturbed. None of that phony lip syncing nonsense, please!

Items

- 1._____ A copy of the 2025 University of Chicago Scavenger Hunt List. [1 point]
- 2._____ It was way too on-the-nose for us to ask for a monolith in 2001. But I guess the Judges back then—hold on, were any of us even born yet?—hadn't experienced the major event involving two monoliths that happened later that year. That's why in 2025 we're asking for two giant, black, shiny, loved-by-apes-and-men-in-ape-costumes-alike monoliths AND the bones that, when tossed into the air, transformed into spacestations and brought them both down in your team's HQ. [91 points but only if Sephiroth shows up]
- 3._____ Here at UoC Scav Hunt we love unity so let's get as many people as possible to hold hands in a really big circle around the Quad :) Meet in front of Ryerson on Friday at 2:00 p.m. :) [20 points]

- 9._____ You've seen a diagonal grilled threese—now bring your sandwich-making skills into the fourth dimension. [4 points]
- 10._____ Whether this Item can be done or not is TBA because the university that prides itself on free speech cannot tell the difference between petty vandalism and critical inquiry. [42 points]

Oh, they lost their non-corporeal form in the early 2010s and experienced a quantum dimensional shift to reappear in the physical realm on Judgment Day? Complete with the full bells-and-whistles shape-shifting, duplication, and color-changing that we remember so fondly? And it’ll sync to the theme song? Neat! [20.10 points. Digital components can be used to create your visualizer, but no screens nor lightbulbs allowed!]
- 32._____ A member of your team riding a penny-farthing. [25 points]

[13 perks of being perfectly painted points]

The Ghost of Scavivus Present will haunt the ScavGallery with an Item from that weird List that somehow got sent out a couple days early. The Ghost of Scavivus Yet to Come shall appear at HQ Visits, offering to Judge Scrooge a fearful vision of an Item completion from a future Hunt, which better be pretty good. [2 points from the past, 6 from the present, 10 from the future, and 6 for looking spooky]
- 50._____ This Item doesn't look like a camel. But it does sound like one, because it is a VST plugin that takes in any sound and transmogrifies it 'til we're convinced we're out in the desert. [178/10 BPointsM]

- 122._____ Waffles, waffles, everywhere, and every square to eat! Get out your irons because on Saturday night at 5 p.m., the Judges will be waiting in Hutch for an all-waffle Scavvenfeast. For your first course, show the transformative power of the waffle iron by taking a dish made of pasta, rice, or another grain and turning it into a delicious waffle before our very eyes. Your second course should demonstrate your skill with flavors and decorative sauces in a waffle that looks like art but tastes like a classic soup. Next, cleanse our palates with a mini-waffle that flavor-blasts us into space. Fourthly and finally, prove that gingerbread is not the only architectural pastry by making an edible diorama that incorporates both vertical standing waffles and a stack of horizontal waffles layered with filling. - 262._____ The Cabal's crack team of feline researchers (read: pet cats) has determined that the ideal location for a nap is a room where the dimensionless quantity  $C_{at}$  is maximized. In terms of the altitude above street level  $H$ , total window surface area  $W$ , and room volume  $V$ , the  $C_{at}$  of a room is given by:

$$C_{at} = \frac{HW}{V}$$

Using this metric and the length-measuring device of your choice, identify a good room on campus for a Judge to have a catnap in. You must measure and compare the  $C_{at}$  of at least two rooms, which must be reasonably accessible to any given student (so no dorm buildings or restricted areas). You must also document your process, including a properly labeled diagram of the room, a figure detailing your measurement technique, and photographic evidence of a successful catnap. [22 points]

- 263._____ Your team's Sovereign Scavvie is convinced that the Rules of the Hunt don't apply to them. Their mystifyingly uninformed arguments won't actually allow them to get away with rule breaking, but they won't let that minor issue get in the way of their nonsensical pseudo-legal ranting. [2 points]
- 264._____ Yeah, it's really cool how you can temper chocolate and all, but why don't you try making some quenched chocolate for us to try? [3.3 points]
- 265._____ If there's one thing we hate, it's when a bunch of slow walkers block the entire width of a sidewalk, making it impossible to pass them without stepping off the sidewalk and thereby slowing things down for everyone behind them. Surely the solution to this problem lies in looking to roadways for inspiration and adapting an automotive traffic control measure for use on pedestrian traffic. Test out your idea on a campus walkway of your choice and collect data on congestion, user experience, etc. to compile a report on the viability of the proposed measure. [60 "one more lane will fix it bro" points]
- 266._____ Each team will be given a cryptic passphrase at Craft Services. Determine the passphrases belonging to the other teams and whisper them into the Judge's ear at Judgment. And no sneaky colluding with other teams, got it? That would be cheating! You would never do something so dishonest as cheating, right? [0.6 points per valid passphrase]
- 267._____ Everyone cheated on the previous Item and you have the corkboard and string to prove it! Your corkboard should show the convoluted web of clandestine conspiracy you uncovered with evidence for each link. [10 points]

Your attraction must include a to-scale build of a ride vehicle, must be rideable, and have immaculate theming and story—enough to rival Larry the Scary Rex. [80 Dinopoints]

- 282._____ Hi, my name is Bernard Mae-Dough, and I’m so thrilled to have this spot on the List. I graduated from the UoC in 1986, and one of my life’s regrets is that I couldn’t participate in the Scavenger Hunt as a student, so when the Judges approached me I was so honored. Since graduating, I’ve been a successful investor in a number of fields—equities, bonds, currencies, commodities, you name it—but I’ve now found a successful method to speculate in an entirely new domain: points. Using my new technique, I’m able to generate astonishing returns easily, and, as gratitude to the Judges for letting me on the List, I’d like you to share in the prosperity. I’ve seeded each team with [25 points] to begin with, and if you invest more with me, I can offer you GUARANTEED returns at a fixed rate (I earn on the spread between my bespoke investing plan and what I guarantee to you, in case you were wondering). To learn more about how to invest with me (or just to withdraw the seed capital if you’re a Debbie Downer), visit the prospectus at scavhunt.uchicago.edu/may-2025-opportunity. Together, we’ll prove the haters wrong and reap some incredible profits.

It's time to harness this power at the inaugural Imm-dad-culate Grid Extravaganza at 4:05 p.m. on Saturday in the Reynolds Club South Lounge, where dads across the nation will work together to complete a massive, 435-square grid with the most obscure ballplayers our baby brains have never heard of. Each team should send one Scavvie and one That Scavvie's Dad! In-person and on-the-phone dads will both be permitted entry, provided that they know their shit. [25 dWAR points]

- 304._____ A mysterious elixir, so enticing, so compelling, that, even though we know not what it may be, we simply must have a sip at Judgment. [12 mystical points]

Make us a replacement tiara or equivalent piece of headgear that can display the mood of whichever regnant monarch happens to be wearing it. Efficacy should be demonstrated by moving it from head to head, and it should be about as accurate as a normal mood ring. [22 regal points]
- 315._____ A bookshelf that moans when you insert a book. [6.9 points]
- 316._____ Okay. So a few years ago I proposed an Item that was grasping for the concept of what would eventually become known as a "goon cave." I'm definitely not mad about it, but the Judges at that time failed to appreciate the idea and lesser men invented it before a joint effort between the Judges and Scavenger Hunt participants would certainly have arrived at the concept and the attendant public acclaim. Now sure, we could at this point simply bandwagon onto the existing idea and release a derivative Item along the lines of "Plato's Goon Cave" and doubtless receive a couple of dutiful chuckles, but the real issue is the years of gooning progress lost. We remain stuck in analogue to this transitional cave state and worse still, each of us is wrapped in the digital shadows of their own individualized goon cave. Take a moment to gaze beyond the silicon veil, across a dispirited people—enslaved and cyberatomized by algorithm. Behold even monsterfucking, that most tolerant of traditions, has fragmented into microniches of such intense specificity as to make forging common bonds impossible. As we speak, millions are bubble and shrink wrapped in prisons of solitary delight; be it the constrictive eternal-scroll coils of Kaa hypnosis content or the parasocial embrace of a light novel about a Kamala Harris hyena fursona. Open your ear to the lamentation of a civilization that is on the brink—and not in a good way. This is the consequence of failure. Our failure. The University of Chicago Scavenger Hunt has a sacred charge to push the frontiers of collective effervescence in a society that is in dire need of third spaces—especially those of the gooning variety. Where's the goonity? Maslow's hierarchy disappears with a critical flared base missing, and society must make an emergency trip to the proctologist. O, Scavenger Hunt, the Judges have heard your unformed cries for tomorrow! Your suffering is at an end! We will oversee a Golden Age of Gooning! All teams are hereby tasked with imagining the future of the collective gooning experience. Shall this veritable goontopia appear in the form of Goon Pits? Mayhaps a Goon Arena or Goons Unknown? Provide device schematics for your vision and architectural mockups for a site. Our future is already riding on this! This is the text of the Item. Don't cut a single word of it. Shall the circle be unjorkened? [12 points]

- 342._____ We can all agree that the 2007 release of "Crank That (Soulja Boy)" by Soulja Boy was a cultural reset. Please reset our culture by Cranking That in a new genre. [6 points]
- 343._____ We've all heard about the mega beef going on in the rap community by now between the 'Big 3' and supplementaries. The clear winners of the beef, however, are Metro Boomin's drums in "BBL Drizzy." Certified hood classic. Now make us one. A BBL Drizzy. - 345._____ Everybody has an idol. Ours is 7-foot-tall Czechoslovakian TV star and political icon Ratafak Plachta. It was such a shame that he mysteriously disappeared from set one day, never to be seen again... unless, no, it can't be... you've found him and convinced him to come to Judgment! [44 points]
- 346._____ We've all seen the Spiderverse movies by now and are probably all in mourning that we won't find out what happens to Miles and the gang until 2027. To raise our spirits, rather than rewatching the movies and fan edits all day, please develop your own Spidersona, costume and all, based off your Scav-verse presented via your team's Scav-verse lookbook. Your spider should correspond with your team's name and values, sport a cool Spider-Suit, exhibit some sort of special power (in addition to traditional webs), and have overcome that classic Spidey traumatic backstory. [4.2 points]
